Shri Sumesh Bajaj, Deputy Govt. Advocate for the Respondent/State.

In this writ petition the petitioner alleged that he has been undergoing life sentence imposed on him by the learned Sessions Judge, Rajnandgaon in S.T.No. 66/1986 and that he filed an application in Form 'A' under the provisions of Madhya Pradesh Prisoners Release on Probation Act, 1954 on 15.3.1993 but the Probation Board has not taken any decision.

When this matter was heard by this Court on earlier occasion on 17.3.2005, learned Panel Advocate was directed to ascertain from the Central Jail, Rajnandgaon about the release of the petitioner. Today at the time of hearing, learned Panel Advocate on the basis of information received by him submitted that the petitioner was in fact released as far as back on 18.12.2000. Since the relief sought by the petitioner is already granted by the Board itself, this writ petition does not survive for decision making. It is, therefore, dismissed as having become infructuous.
